3.1.2 A Ticket is not transferable, except as required by any locally applicable laws.

3.1.3 Some Tickets are sold at discounted fares which may be partially or completely non-refundable. Passenger should choose the fare best suited to Passenger's needs. Passenger may also wish to ensure that Passenger have appropriate insurance to cover instances where Passenger have to cancel Passenger's Ticket.

3.1.4 If Passenger have a Ticket, as described in 3.1.3 above, which is completely unused, and Passenger are prevented from travelling due to Force Majeure, provided that Passenger promptly advise us and furnish evidence of such Force Majeure, Airline will provide Passenger with a credit of the non-refundable amount of the fare, for future travel on us, subject to deduction of a reasonable administration fee.

3.1.5 The Ticket is and remains at all times the property of the issuing carrier.

3.1.6 Except in the case of an Electronic Ticket, Passenger shall not be entitled to be carried on a flight unless Passenger presents a valid Ticket containing the Flight Coupon for that flight and all other unused Flight Coupons and the Passenger Coupon. In addition, Passenger shall not be entitled to be carried if the Ticket presented is mutilated or if it has been altered otherwise than by us or our Authorized Agent. In the case of an Electronic Ticket, Passenger shall not be entitled to be carried on a flight unless Passenger provides positive identification and a valid Electronic Ticket has been duly issued in Passenger's name.

3.1.7(a) In case of loss or mutilation of a Ticket (or part of it) by Passenger or non-presentation of a Ticket containing the Passenger Coupon and all unused Flight Coupons, upon Passenger's request Airline will replace such Ticket (or part of it) by issuing a new Ticket, provided there is evidence, readily ascertainable at the time, that a Ticket valid for the flight(s) in question was duly issued and Passenger sign an agreement to reimburse us for any costs and losses, up to the value of the original ticket, which are necessarily and reasonably incurred by us or another carrier for misuse of the Ticket. Airline will not claim reimbursement from Passenger for any such losses which result from our own negligence. The issuing carrier may charge a reasonable administration fee for this service, unless the loss or mutilation was due to the negligence of the issuing carrier, or its agent.

3.1.7(b) Where such evidence is not available or Passenger do not sign such an agreement, the carrier issuing the new Ticket may require Passenger to pay up to the full Ticket price for a replacement Ticket, subject to refund if and when the original issuing carrier is satisfied that the lost or mutilated Ticket has not been used before the expiry of its validity. If, upon finding the original Ticket before the expiry of its validity, Passenger surrenders it to the carrier issuing the new Ticket, the foregoing refund will be processed at that time.

3.1.8 A ticket is valuable and Passenger should take appropriate measures to safeguard it and ensure it is not lost or stolen.

3.2 PERIOD OF VALIDITY

3.2.1 Except as otherwise provided in the Ticket, these Conditions, or in applicable Tariffs (which may limit the validity of a ticket, in which case the limitation will be shown on the Ticket) a Ticket is valid for:

Airline will refund Passenger the difference if the new price is lower but otherwise, Passenger's unused Coupons have no value.

3.3.4 Please be aware that while some types of changes will not result in a change of fare, others, such as changing the place of departure (for example, if Passenger do not fly the first segment) or reversing the direction Passenger travel, can result in an increase in price. Many special fares are valid only on the dates and for the flights shown on the Ticket and may not be changed at all, or only upon payment of an additional fee.

3.3.5 Each Flight Coupon contained in Passenger's Ticket will be accepted for carriage in the class of service on the date and flight for which space has been reserved. When a Ticket is originally issued without a reservation being specified, space may be later reserved subject to our Tariff and the availability of space on the flight requested.
